December 8, 1925.

Mrs. Hazeltine Cisco,
Waco, Texas.

My dear Cousin:

I returned home on the 27th, a few days earlier that I expected, in order that Durward might get away to Europe on our business mission.

I wish to say that I certainly was glad to have the pleasure of knowing you and regret that I could not get down to Goldthwaite to see Hardy and the other members of the family.

As you know I was ill in Waco and on my return on the 27th, I had to go to bed, and I did my first work yesterday. I am coming back next spring when the weather gets good, to see all of the members of the family down on the frontier.

Assuring you of my pleasure of knowing you, and with most sincere regards, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

J.C.Collier.
